

Webinar: Function Fields

Published 09/09/2019

Function fields are a powerful tool for returning calculated values on the fly in Axiom queries. Several dozen have rolled out, with more to come. In this recorded webinar, learn what they are, how to use them, and see examples in action returning data in admissions, development, CRM, and more in a single query that previously would have taken multiple fields in multiple queries.
